First question of the night: is radio still a relevant medium in 2013? #peachcityWRD

14-Feb-13 04:32 | PeachCityRadio

RT @PeachCityRadio: First question of the night: is radio still a relevant medium in 2013? #peachcityWRD

14-Feb-13 04:33 | LiveLarche

@PeachCityRadio Yeah I think so. Podcasts are great, but seem to be pretty limited to a specific demographic in audience. #peachcitywrld

14-Feb-13 04:34 | michaelchutz

Read an article the other day that radio is still reaching the vast majority of people on a daily basis. #peachcitywrld

14-Feb-13 04:34 | KootenayMorning

Radio is still an important medium, not everyone is web-savy.RT @PeachCityRadio #peachcityWRD

14-Feb-13 04:35 | idmont

I think radio can still reach a ton of people, especially live and local. #peachcitywrld

14-Feb-13 04:35 | michaelchutz

No matter how high-tech I get in a day, I still spend 60 mins + listening to fm radio #peachcityWRD

14-Feb-13 04:37 | jackwards

#peachcityWRD I still listen to radio every day, not for music content but news and info.

14-Feb-13 04:37 | idmont

RT @PeachCityRadio: #peachcitywrd I listen to it in the car every day.

14-Feb-13 04:43 | LiveLarche

Radio has spontaneity if done properly, it's best when it's live. #peachcitywrd

14-Feb-13 04:44 | KootenayMorning

Q2 How does a community radio station benefit a community? #peachcityWRD

14-Feb-13 04:45 | PeachCityRadio

So, live, (hyper-)local? #peachcityWRD

14-Feb-13 04:45 | michaelchutz

Radio can tell stories more simply, more personally, and become a trusted part of the community. #bestpractices #peachcitywrd

14-Feb-13 04:46 | KootenayMorning

#peachcityWRD I'm still a diehard CBC listener, but if there was local radio(Penticton) that didn't suck, I would definitely listen to it.

RT @PeachCityRadio: Q2 How does a community radio station benefit a community? #peachcityWRD

Local happenings! RT @PeachCityRadio: Q2 How does a community radio station benefit a community? #peachcityWRD

14-Feb-13 04:47 | idmont

Ian, what does "not sucking" involve? #peachcityWRD

14-Feb-13 04:47 | michaelchutz

Community radio keeps it local. Corporate radio is no longer local, even with their temp radio school grads. #peachcitywrd

14-Feb-13 04:47 | KootenayMorning

If I could tell community radio people one important thing (toward non-sucking): radio is a performance medium. #peachcitywrd

14-Feb-13 04:49 | KootenayMorning

I'm referring to top 40 or country music, they are just not my thing. @michaelchutz: Ian, what does "not sucking" involve? #peachcityWRD

14-Feb-13 04:50 | idmont

I like the idea of people being able to broadcast what they think is worthy. It makes for interesting content. #peachcityWRD

What would you say is the personality of Penticton? What kind of flavour of radio would capture its imagination? #peachcityWRD

14-Feb-13 04:58 | michaelschutz

Radio (media) is a reflection of the society it serves. Community radio can take us back to serving the listener #peachcityWRD

14-Feb-13 04:58 | KootenayMorning

We are so pumped about the number of people in #Penticton who want to get involved #peachcityWRD

14-Feb-13 04:59 | PeachCityRadio

Sadly, corporate media settled for serving their shareholder, then, barely, the advertiser, listener is last, staff all gone #peachcityWRD

14-Feb-13 05:00 | KootenayMorning

@michaelschutz #peachcityWRD Sadly the demographics of Penticton would dictate an oldies flavoured theme. But I think that is changing.

14-Feb-13 05:00 | idmont

With that bit of hard earned cynicism, I'm off for my daily hour of satellite TV: The Daily Show/Colbert. Enjoy! #peachcityWRD

14-Feb-13 05:02 | KootenayMorning

@idmont Yeah, though my guess is those interested in developing comm. radio aren't that demographic anyway. #peachcityWRD

14-Feb-13 05:02 | michaelschutz

@KootenayMorning no you're right. That's why comm. radio has such great potential. #peachcityWRD
