STOP SHOUTING: Ok, so there's been a bit of a mix up. Not like any of you care, not like any of you mentioned anything...and if a play list is wrong in the middle of the cyber forest do any IP addresses make a noise? And now that the correct playlist is with the correct episode, do you feel better? Has your life changed in a positive way? Did you get a raise at your job? Daniel Carter is on Track #2, which is really all you need to know, because DANIEL CARTER RULES, OK?
